

SCORE WADSWORTH
AS SENATE FAILURE

"Enemy of the State," Mrs. Catt
Tells Non-Partisan Women in Address.

The Non-Partisan Senatorial Committee, the women's organization camping on the trail of Senator James Wadsworth Jr., packed the Y. M. C. A. assembly hall, Hannon Place, Brooklyn, yesterday afternoon.

The chief speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Mrs. Catt doesn't like Mr. Wadsworth from any angle. Her discussion of his status was under the head of "An Enemy of the State."

"There is not a thing in his record," the speaker said, "to show that he is qualified for leadership, or ever will attain it. We are not opposing him simply because he opposed Women Suffrage. We are against him because he is altogether too small a man for such a big job."

"He wasn't against Suffrage simply because he thought women were not entitled nor intelligent enough to vote, but because he feared the exercise of the right by women would lead to legislation which the reactionary element opposed."

Mrs. Catt concluded her address with the slogan of the anti-Wadsworth women: "Senator Wadsworth's place is in the home."

ASKS FULL REPORT
ON ALL SHORT FUNDS

Senate Committee Demands Names of All Subscribers of $100 or More.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 18.—The Senate Committee that is investigating the Presidential and other political shush funds has closed its activities until after the elections.

It adopted a resolution at its meeting here directing the chairman of the National Senatorial and Congressional committees of the two parties to file with it at Chicago on Oct. 26 a complete record of collections and expenditures. In telegrams addressed to Will H. Hays, Republican Chairman, George White, head of the Democratic National Committee, and the heads of the other party organizations, the committee asked for complete lists of all subscriptions in excess of $100; detailed figures on expenditures; and also a list of all pledges, promises or underwriting. Senator Ross specifically asked for the latter in an effort to learn whether any arrangements had been made to meet the deficits which it has been reported both parties will face after the election.

GIVE $3,000 LOVE BAKES.
A Circuit Court jury at Newark last night awarded $3,000 to Mrs. Margaret Harris of Millburn, who sued Mrs. Mae V. Michel of Lawrence for alienation of the affections of her husband, Joseph Harris.
